Campbell County Environmental Education Center Newsletter

October 2022

September was a busy month for field trips at the Environmental Education Center! Throughout the month, hundreds of students came through our doors to learn about reptiles, raptors, wetlands, and animal adaptations. With field trip season winding down at the EEC, we welcome more visitors from the general public as the building starts to settle into its fall and winter quietness. The end of fall field trips also means more of our regular programming can return! Throughout October (and the rest of fall to come), we have a variety of exciting programs for visitors of all ages to enjoy. Join us for one of our nature hikes, come build a bat house, or stop by for a visit to watch the birds at our bird viewing area!
